

Risk-risk assessment: understanding future risks with or without solar radiation modification

In the event of overshooting 1.5°C, which future might be the least worst option?

Such an assessment of quantifiable and non-quantifiable risks might help society to better understand what the future might look like with or without SRM.